NOTES FROM CAMP THREE

June 12, 1906.

Lewis Benedict left last Saturday for a ten days' outing on Oak creek.

T. S. Woolsey, Jr., was an evening visitor Friday last on his way to Flagstaff.

Ed. Carlson, "Take It Easy," has accepted a position here.

Jesse Boyce was a Sunday visitor to Camp 2 in the interests of voters and the county.

J. C. Norton, territorial veterinarian, spent a busy Thursday among us. Besides examining the recently arrived horses in behalf of the sanitary board, he did some dental work for the company.

Sunday, R. N. Anderson, the watchman, of Minneapolis, did a flourishing business, considering the spring shut down and the nearness of the Fourth.

A razor and needle vendor spent several hours here Sunday peddling his wares. His stay was so short and his business so scarce that we did not learn his name or address. All suckers are not caught in Oak creek.

Rev. E. G. Decker spent twenty-four hours in camp this week as a rest. Such a short time is not healthful, and we hope his stay will be longer next time.

J. R. (Curley) Wallace, Ed. Geddes and Robert Kinser have been subpoenaed in behalf of the government against C. E. Boyce for trespassing on the Grand Canyon reserve, in the United States court in Prescott.

Messrs. Tim Riordan and Ed. McGonigle spent Monday morning in the woods studying government cuttings. The Arizona Lumber Co. are considering some government timber.

Gen. Gilroy, C. A. Johnson's son-in-law and co-partner in the horse business, came in Monday with horses gathered near Williams.

Allen Stricklin left Monday for Williams in search of men. There seems to be a continual string of men, unsatisfied, that come and go quickly.

James LeGro, who has been ailing for some time, has decided to spend a week under the doctor's care in Williams.

Mike Schmuck, barn foreman of Camp 2, paid us a visit Tuesday.

SELIGMAN BUBBLES

SELIGMAN, ARIZ., JUNE 13, 1906.

Weather warm in Seligman.

C. C. Hutchinson is in from the ranch, driving the finest team we have seen for some time, and from his actions we would not be surprised to see him follow his friend Patterson's example, soon.

Johnny Dial has returned from the southern country and will remain here. Glad to see you back, Johnnie.

Walt King and family will move to Winslow next week. Walt has been promoted to a passenger run.

Anyone wishing information regarding the Grand Canyon will please call on Jimmie Wilson. He spent several days there a short time ago looking over the principal points of interest and "auto" know all about it. He will also act as guide for his "friends."

Jeff Evans and James Walsh returned from Los Angeles a few days ago and say there is no place like Arizona.

Mose Messick left a few days ago for a short visit to California where he will absorb the sea breezes for a while. Quite a delegation of his friends escorted him to the depot and gave him a good send off. Mose, don't stay too long, as Jimmy might get the rheumatism or tooth ache and want to go away, himself. Jimmie now goes around singing "Everybody Works But Father."

Smith & Finlayson brought in a fine bunch of sheep from California a few days ago.

Excuse our absence last week as the sheep editor was out of town for a few days.

It looks now as though there would be no balloon ascension here on the Fourth. So far the committee has been unable to make satisfactory arrangements in regard to this matter.

SOME LOCAL ITEMS

R. S. Teeple was a business visitor at the Canyon Thursday.

Jacob Salzman departed Wednesday for Prescott to attend court.

Deputy Sheriff W. A. Campbell was a visitor in the city Thursday.

For Sale—At a bargain; $500. Two lots opposite the postoffice. McD. ROBINSON.

E. E. Ball, resident engineer at Winslow, was here yesterday on company business.

W. B. Worthingham, of Marseilles, Ill., is a new subscriber to the News this week.

Vic Melick says he has asked a lady to join him at the public wedding on the Fourth.

C. M. Funston, editor of the Coconino Sun, published at Flagstaff, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

The Santa Fe will shortly install a new 100 ton scale of the latest pattern opposite the curio building.

Lost—A pair of spectacles, gold; between Saginaw office and Phelan dam. Finder please return to this office.

Mrs. A. Tetzlaff departed last week for a visit at Los Angeles. She will probably remain on the coast for some time.

If you want window glass, paint, oil, wall paper, picture mouldings, varnish, brushes, etc., please call on J. C. Simmons, over Langin's blacksmith shop.

At the M. E. Church.—Preaching at 11 a. m.; Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Junior Epworth League at 2:30 p. m.; Epworth League at 7:30 p. m.; evening service, 8.

Herb Yoder expects to leave the first of the coming week for a visit at the old Missouri home. He will probably accompany a sheep shipment to be made by Campbell & Francis.

The Winslow Mail says it is reported that John Denair, for many years division superintendent of the Santa Fe with headquarters at Needles, Cal., has resigned and that J. Kinucan, formerly trainmaster here, but now located at Point Richmond, Cal., will succeed him.

George L. Barnes has been engaged as driver on Jacob Salzman's delivery wagon for the past week. Jack Selman, the butcher, has been laid up with an injured leg. A couple of weeks since he slipped on the sidewalk, and has since been troubled with a very sore shin.

We are in receipt of an invitation to the reception in honor of the graduating class of the Northern Arizona Normal school, which will be held on Friday evening, June 22, at the Normal hall in Flagstaff. The graduating exercises will be held on Thursday evening, June 21.

T. F. Holden was this week appointed a notary public by the governor. This appointment is in line with a suggestion made by Mr. Holden recently before the sanitary board, and will greatly facilitate the making of affidavits, on the range, which are sometimes necessary.

Ed. Geddes and Bob Kinser went to Prescott on Wednesday as witnesses before the U. S. grand jury, which, we understand, will be called upon by the forest service to investigate the charges against C. E. Boyce, of ranging his cattle upon the reserve without first having secured a permit.

Elmer Langin, the village blacksmith, was a visitor at Rhoades last Sunday, at which time he placed shoes on some thirteen head of horses belonging to the J. M. Dennis Lumber Co. Elmer is quite enthusiastic over the proposed civic parade which may be pulled off here on the Fourth.

Ball Game Tomorrow at Ash Fork

Tomorrow the local ball team goes to Ash Fork to play the team of that place. A large crowd of the local fans will accompany the local team and endeavor to cheer them to victory. Special rates have been granted on the railroad and many will avail themselves of this chance to make the trip. Arrangements have been perfected so that the K. of P. band will go along and furnish music. Join the crowd and enjoy yourself.

Ash Fork having gone to considerable expense to have the Williams ball team come down, and not being able to pay the expenses of the local band, Dr. Rounseville yesterday collected $24 around town to meet the band's expenses on the trip. A report of those contributing will be published in our next issue.

Statehood Finally Settled

Washington, June 13.—After a debate that lasted most of the day, the senate adopted the conference committee's report on statehood. This means that Speaker Cannon has backed down. As adopted, and as it will be adopted in the house, the bill provides for the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one state, the capital to be in Guthrie till 1913. Arizona and New Mexico are to vote in November on the proposition of statehood.

If the majority in each territory favors, the delegates then to be chosen shall meet in constitutional convention and formulate a constitution. Five million dollars is to be given from the federal treasury to the school fund of the new state. If the majority in either territory rejects statehood, the plan fails.

The Indians and the Fourth

Charles E. Dagnette, U. S. Indian outing agent, arrived here last week with some 170 Navajo Indians who are now employed in re-balancing the Grand Canyon railroad track. During the coming week another large consignment of Indians will arrive. Most of them are students from the various Indian schools, and can talk and read English fluently. From among their number a ball team has been selected to take part here in the festivities on the 3d, 4th and 5th of July. We understand they will also give some of their native songs and dances.

We understand that the agent has made arrangements to have the uniforms of the boys sent here and that on the Fourth they will give a military drill. In all there will be over two hundred of the Indians present and the larger part of these will participate in the drills.

Everybody!

I want empty beer bottles. Put outside and the boys will pick them up. Jo.

T. E. Pulliam, ex-politician and present real estate dealer, of Flagstaff, was a visitor here Tuesday and Wednesday while on his way to attend court at Prescott.

Today, at Denver, will be run the Colorado Derby, in which Sweetheart, the young filly which carried off the honors at the Arizona territorial fair last winter, will be entered. Sweetheart is the property of Mr. Andrew Miller, superintendent of the local mill, and is being looked after and trained at Denver by W. W. Goode, who also looked after the Miller string at Phoenix.
